People use language to communicate with each other in a society. They exchange knowledge, beliefs, wishes, and feelings through it. Languages vary greatly from region to region. They are so different that a person may not understand the language of someone from another region, country, or continent. It's not surprising to hear that today about 7000 languages exist in the world. Native speakers of these languages range in number from very large, with hundreds of millions of speakers, to very small, with fewer than ten speakers. The most popular language in the world is Chinese. Interestingly, English has fewer native speakers than Chinese, but there are one billion learners of English all around the world. They learn English as an international language. All languages are really valuable. Every language is an amazing means of communication that meets the needs of its own speakers. Therefore, we should respect all languages. 1. Chinese has more native speakers than English.    True<input type="checkbox"/>        False<input type="checkbox"/> 2. The modern lifestyle has had both positive and negative effects on people’s lives. Modern technologies have enabled us to have easy access to information, become more creative, experience fast communication, travel easier, and have a more comfortable life. Have you ever imagined a world without the Internet, tablets, mobile phones, airplanes, and vacuum cleaners? Most people cannot do that, as technology is the miracle of our time.

But using new technologies has changed people’s lifestyle in a harmful way in this century as well. Some technologies are dangerous to our health and can harm our body. Using mobile phones or surfing the Internet for long hours can increase people’s blood pressure and cause sleep problems. Playing video games for long hours makes people nervous and harm their heart and nervous system. Listening to music by headsets can be harmful to one’s hearing and even brain.

Technology, as some people may think, is not a bad thing at all. The way we use it is important.

1. What are two positive effects of technology on people’s lives? .....

2. What is the effect of using mobile phones for long hours? .....

3. Surfing the Internet is always dangerous for people. True False

4. Technology can make people more creative. True False
