C. Reading Passage (١):

Read the following passage and match each paragraph with one of the headings (main ideas). Write the letters (A , B , C, D) in front of the numbers of the paragraphs .

Headlines (main ideas)

- (A) We need to do four things if we want to be healthy.
- (B) You can be thin too, but you should try hard.
- (C) Some people worry about their health when they are forty to sixty years old.
- (D) Some athletes are still very good at sports when they are middle-aged .

٥٨. When many people are middle- aged (forty to sixty years old), they worry about their health. Some middle-aged people are afraid of old age. They do not want to be old, sick and alone. On TV, they see athletes such as swimmers, baseball players, and tennis players. These middle-aged people like to be strong, fast and young again too, but they think they are too old.

٥٩. Are they really too old? Maybe not! More and more athletes are still playing sports when they are middle-aged, and they are playing well. Jimmy Connors, a tennis player, is almost fifty. Rifer Johnson won a gold medal in the ١٩٦٠ Olympics. He is still running and he is over sixty. Their faces are not young, but are healthy and strong. How do they do it? Can anyone be like them?

٦٠. Doctors of old people are studying how people become old. They are learning how people might be healthy at any age. First, it is important to exercise for example, swim, walk, run or play tennis or volleyball. Exercise is for everyone, not only young people. Second, people need to exercise their minds - to think. It is important at every age to study , read and talk with people. Third, people need to eat a lot of vegetables and fruits and not much meat or sugar. Fourth, everyone needs to relax .If older people do these things, they live longer!

D. Reading Comprehensions
